

RX ORDER PROCESS

- /// Either printed forms or access to our online ordering portal will be provided to your company.
- /// Your employees should be provided with a form as required and authorised.
- /// The employee should take the form to an optician of their choice and have an eye test.
- /// The optician will then send the form back to the Riley laboratory.
- /// The laboratory will manufacture the eyewear and send back to the optician, along with payment for the optician's fees.
- /// The employee will then return to the opticians to have their eyewear dispensed.
- /// Your company will receive an invoice from your distributor with the employee's name on it for reference.
